

Adventure on Alabama's Gulf Coast

Discover one of summer's favorite coastal destinations, the pristine Gulf Coast of Alabama.

With 32 miles of sugar-white sands and warm turquoise waters, Alabama's Gulf Coast is a playground of fun, featuring endless options for an unforgettable family getaway. Whether you're looking for idle days playing in the sand or an action-packed itinerary filled with everything from kayaking to golf, this sun-splashed region is your perfect destination.

Surf's Up!

Your family will love relaxing on the pillowy soft sand and splashing in the clear crystalline waters of Alabama's Gulf Shores and Orange Beach areas. Spend a few hours soaking up the sun then let the adventures begin with a Fun Boat Dolphin Cruise, a fishing charter aboard Annie Girl, or a paddleboarding or kayaking excursion with Paddled by You. Later in the afternoon, a sunset sail aboard Wild Hearts is the perfect way to wind down the day.

A Perfect Park

If you're looking for a spot with something for everyone, Gulf State Park is ideal. Set on 6,150 acres with over two miles of beautiful white beaches, this coastal enclave boasts a beach pavilion, swimming pool and splash pad, walking and biking trails, and a fishing pier. Stay in the Gulf-front lodge or book one of the 31 cottages for the ultimate family getaway.

Bayside Beauty

Along the Eastern Shore of beautiful Mobile Bay, relax on picturesque beaches, explore charming towns such as Daphne and Foley, and indulge in amazing seafood. Add a splash of luxury to your getaway with a stay at The Grand Hotel Resort, Golf Club & Spa, Autograph Collection in Fairhope, a historic boutique property that first opened in 1847.
